

The big picture

Creativity and vision influenced the design of John and Heli Marsh's contemporary lounge in Timperley. The couple commissioned Dipti Patel, founder of Nantwich-based Charisma Interior Design, to transform the space

Dipti Patel

1. Divine glass vase with a combination of reds, oranges, whites and browns in a beautiful oval style. This brings all the colours in the room together, simply gorgeous.

2. Lux rug made from 100 per cent polyester in thick plush shaggy pile, which is soft to the touch and comfortable underfoot, purchased from website Modern Rugs, £74.00

3. Superfresco textured Rosalyn Red wallpaper from B&Q, just £11.98 per roll.

4. This bespoke TV/media unit was designed by John and Heli to maximise the space in the room. I brought their design to life to create a modern stylish unit, which works with the colour scheme and provides storage and media system functions as well as being perfect for displaying lovely accessories.

5. Fama Valentina sofa range from Arighi Bianchi, made using Otaru fabric for the sofa suite and Bohemia patterned fabric for the headrest and arm cushions, costs £3135.00. The Moon chair (pictured near left) is Heli's favourite; the chair has recliner and rocking functions, perfect for relaxing.

6. Ellis Coffee Table made from an American white oak solid veneer with a white painted finish, John Lewis, £179.00.

7. This Vienna 6 lighting, from Mantra Manufacture, is adjustable and is fitted with an Olympic flame style glass in polished chrome finish. It costs £266.40 from website Simply Lighting. The room also has a matching funky double table lamp, seen in the far corner of the room.

8. Opus Maze Shelves purchased from Next, £55 for a set of 4, available in various colours.

9. Indian summer oak, engineered hardwood flooring from CONCEPT, £2,060. I selected this for its rich, deep and vibrant tones, which bring warmth to any room.

10. Luxurious handmade pinch-pleat curtains with complementary curtain tie-backs and roman blinds were supplied by my business, Charisma Interior Design, using Sanderson material and Integra Brooklyn Metal Curtain Pole. ■