THE DESIGNERS

Book your FREE 30 minute consultation now.

Throughout the Home & Garden Show, there are a selection of interior designer and garden designers who have offered their services, free of charge, to give half hour consultations to exhibition visitors.

If you have a project you would like some advice on, an idea you would like to discuss or specific room or garden design that could do with some inspiration then book in for a free half hour design consultation with one of our experts.

So you can decide who would best suit your needs, we have put together a short profile of each of the consultants.
